First of all we need to check out what sort of phone you have. If you have a star button on your phone press it when asked. Just ignore this if you haven't got one. Now if you have a push phone (one that beeps when you press a button) you will be able dial your choices. A voice will ask a question with a series of numbered answers. To make your choice, simply press the number button on your phone for the helpline you require. So you haven't got a beepy phone - don't worry. Codemasters super interactive help line is trained to understand your voice. To access the information you want, simply say YES when asked a question. If you don't want it, just keep quiet and we will ask you another question.

Please don't phone unless you are really stuck and make sure you get permission from the person who pays the phone bill first!
Call costs 36p per minute during off-peak time and 48p per minute at all other times. (GREAT BRITAIN ONLY)
