STRIP POKER

RULES

Hi there. My name is Ossie! I am here to teach you to play striptease poker, this one is the popular five card draw type.

The computer will deal you and Mindy five cards each. There is a round of betting when the bets are equalised. You or Mindy reject unwanted cards from your respective hands and will be dealt replacements from the pack. The idea being to finish with a better hand than the original dealt. This is known as the draw. After the draw there is a new period of betting on the final hands. When the last bets are equalised there is a show down and the best hand wins.

At any of the betting stages you may either STAND (which means do nothing) or BET (up to 25 pounds) or FOLD (which means to concede the hand).

Remember Mindy has all these options open to her and she may be bluffing.

Here are the house rules you must remember.

You start with 150 pounds each and may have to sell an article of clothing, each article +150 pounds.
