BINKY

The phone rings in the offices of Binky and Sons, Painters and Decorators. It is quickly picked up by Binky. "Hello can I help you?"; a voice at the other end of the phone explains he has need of Binky's service. A 21 storey building in the city needs the floors painting. It seems that this job has been given to other companies in the city, but shortly after starting the job they quit without explanation, other than saying it wasn't safe in there. Binky accepts the job and ALL its hazards.

Binky's Job Specification.
