CASE FILE No. 2743-984-bd

The incident on the night that would later be known as "blood night" went down in my precinct. The crime scene was shocking ... even for a city like this where violence is part of everyday life. Dead bodies of drug dealers were lying everywhere in that harbor warehouse. With puddles of blood splattered all over, I can only imagine what went down here.

Fortunately, finding our first lead was simple. We have witnesses placing five people at the scene at the time of the shootout: Raven, the undefeated bouncer; life-of-the-party Jason G; Gina, the stunningly beautiful assassin; Lola, the cold-hearted fighting machine, and Aaron, the mastermind.

There isn't a soul in this town who doesn't know who they are. Even among the drug lord Zanetti's ranks, they were the cream of the crop. There wasn't a job they couldn't handle ... that is, until now. It looks like Zanetti has some plans of his own for them.

At first glance, this case looks simple, open and shut. But there's something fishy here, and it's not the smell of blood splattered everywhere either. I'm onto them. Somewhere in the underbelly of this city, the ambitions of its rulers are swirling like a dark and dingy tornado. And if we don't stop whoever is behind it, this dark shadow may never be lifted from this town.

The suspects have split up and we're currently trying to track them down. We need to nab them and get to the bottom of this to find out what really went down that night, before Zanetti has 'em snuffed and it's too late.

If we can manage that, then maybe that'll shine even a sliver of light on the darkness that plagues our city. And they're all seasoned veterans of the streets, so I doubt they'll go out without a fight. We should have a little while at least to track 'em down.

I have pictures of the five suspects in front of me. But where's the heroin and the cash that were supposed to have traded hands?

And why were all these people slaughtered? Are they the real culprits behind all this?

Just as I expected, that long night turned into the start of a series of some major, serious events.

He taught her self-defense martial arts, the art of killing, and everything else a fierce killer needs to know. OTHER CHARACTERS

ZANETTI

On the surface he's Las Sombras' top self-made business man. He controls all the rights to the harbor and runs a number of big factories there. But he has another side, as the head of the Zanetti Family that rules over the city streets. Once wild and energetic, he has become extremely suspicious and untrusting in his old age. As always, he is basically untouchable by the authorities.

EUGENE

Zanetti's smart yet wild right-hand man. Expected to take over the Family once Zanetti retires, Eugene is also romantically involved with Gina.

MELVIN

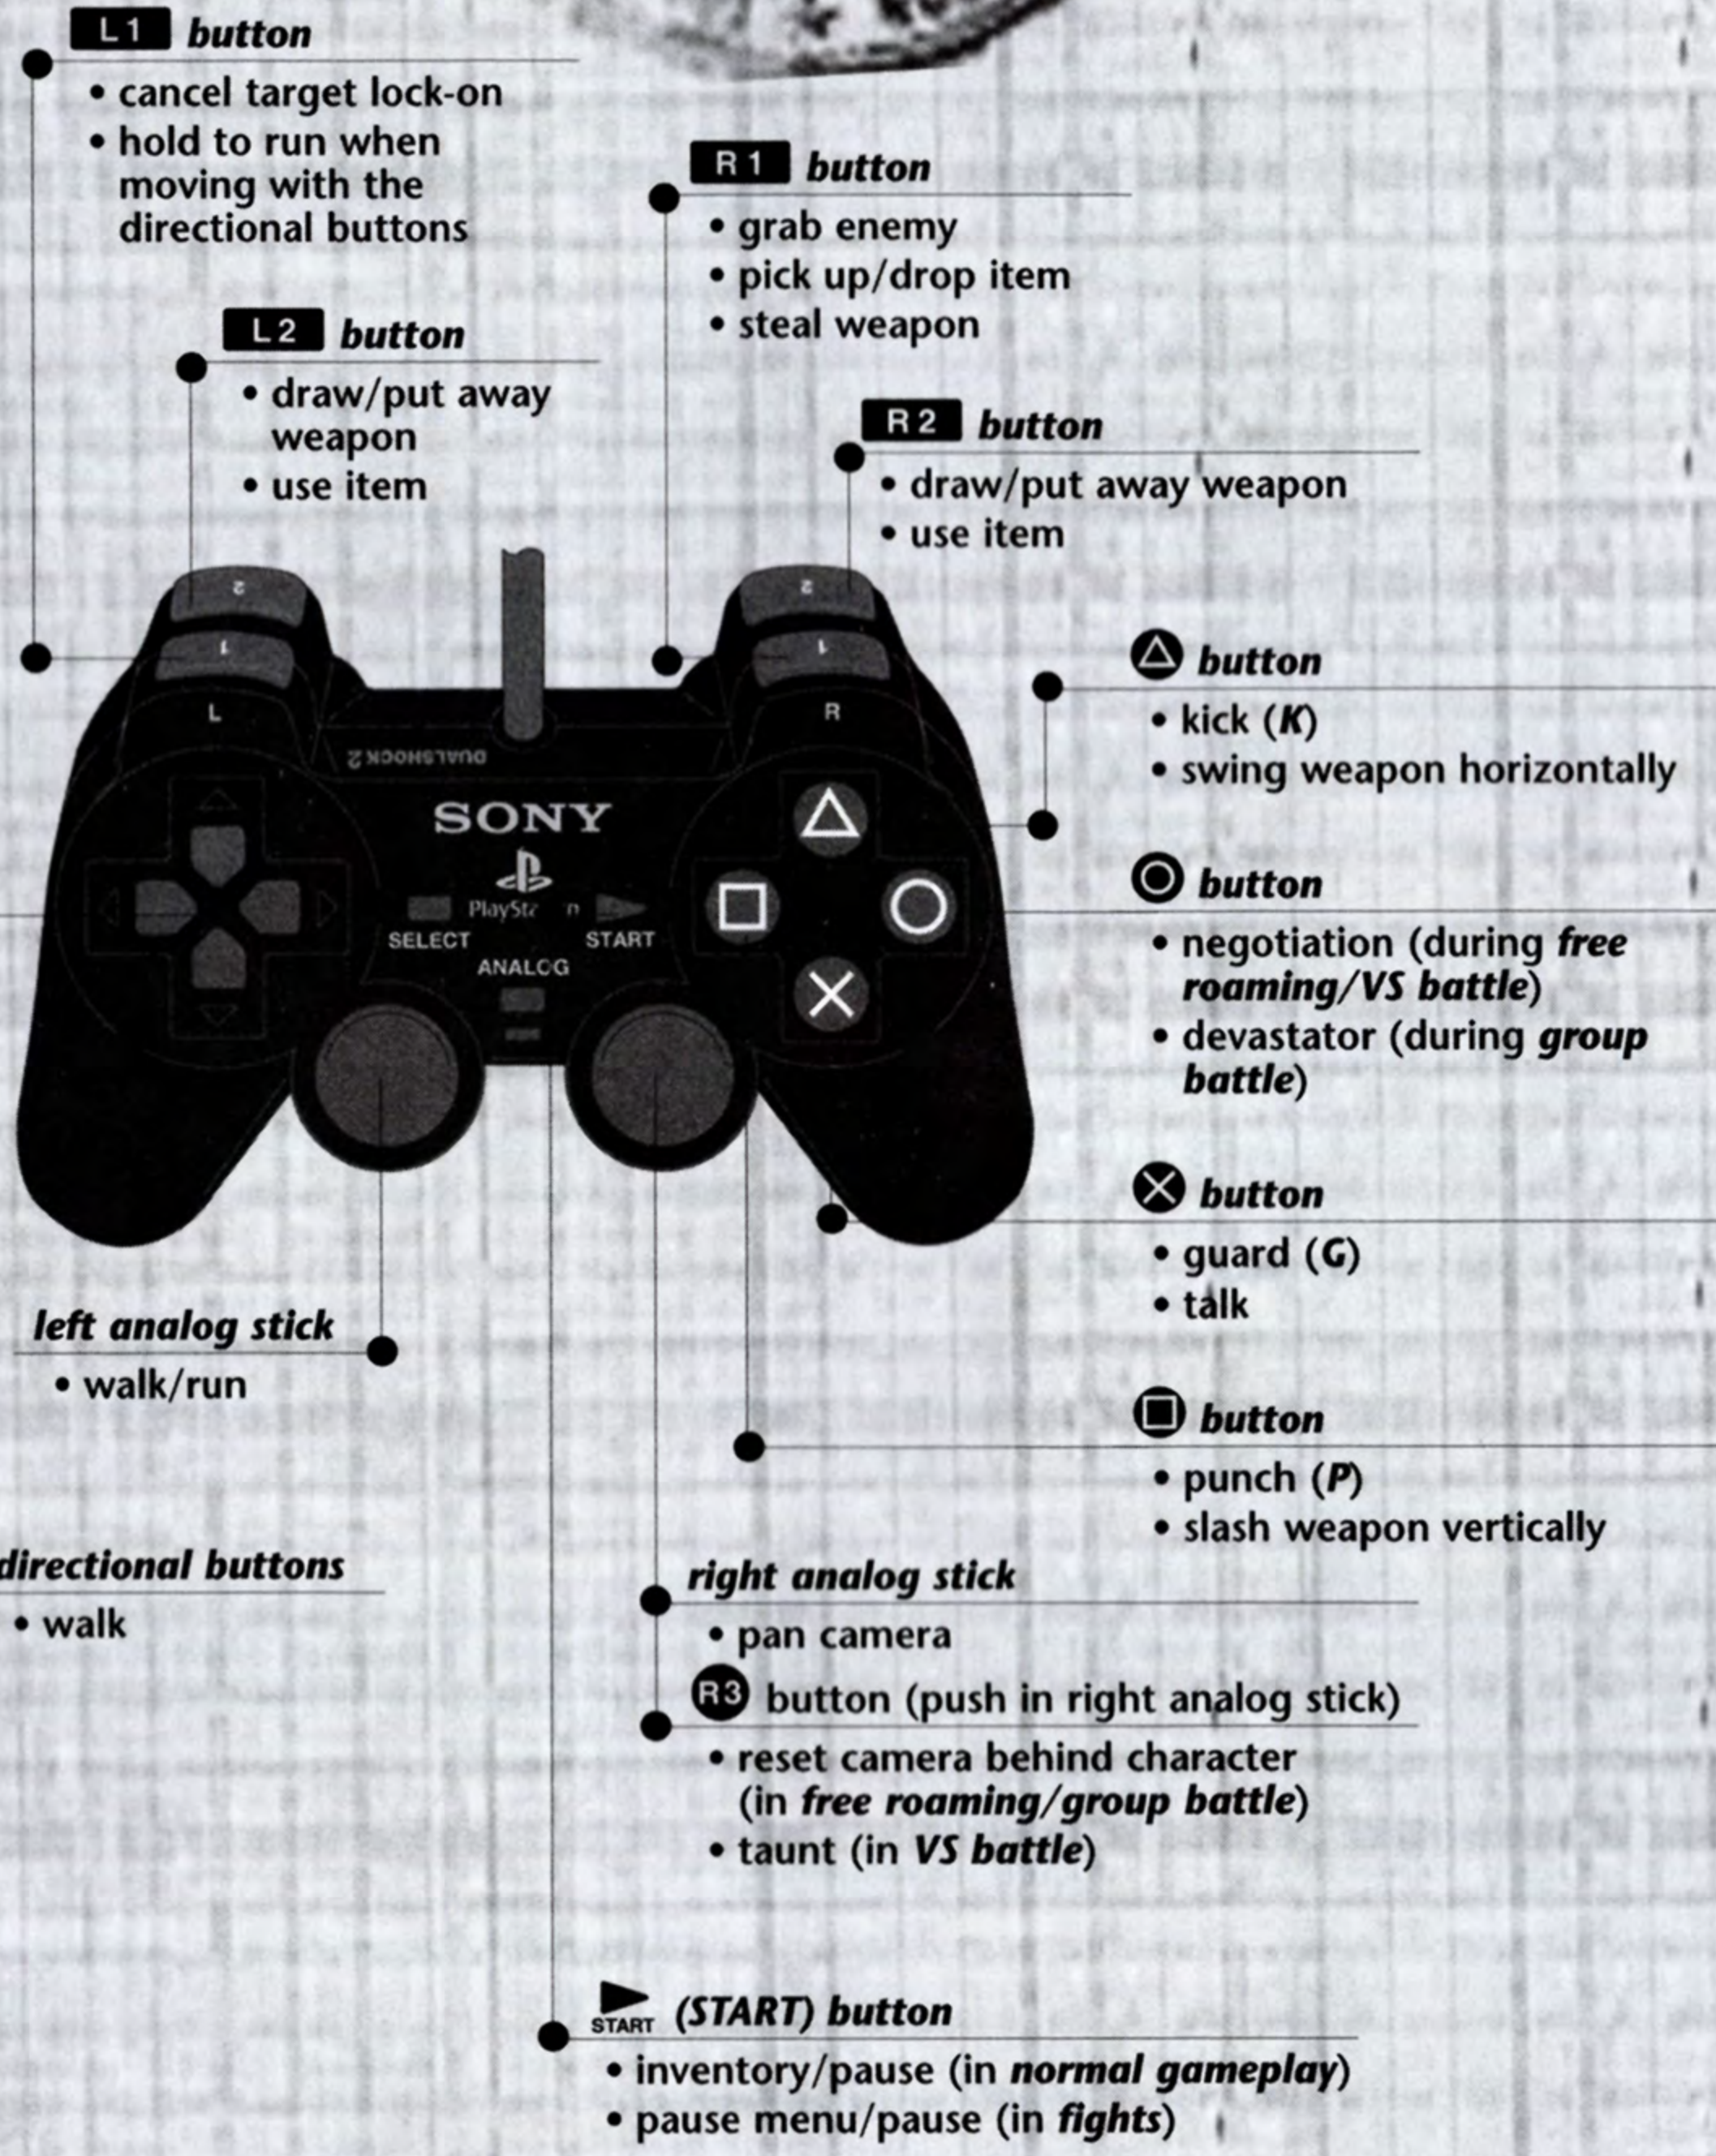

Owner of a bar called The Hole, this former Mob member still has lots of friends in the criminal underworld. He may be a stubborn, pigheaded old man, but he doesn't care too much for Zanetti's way of doing things, and rumor has it he even helps people on Zanetti's bad side stay hidden.

DET. CHESTER

This is me, head of the city police. I'm a very strict by-the-book type of cop, perhaps a bit more passionate about my job than is healthy. But you can't teach an old dog new tricks. The only thing that keeps me running is my hatred for the Mob. I'm prepared to take any means necessary in order to see those bastards dead and buried.

If you run out of life during battle, you become incapacitated. Depending on where the game ends, different things will happen, as explained below:

GROUP BATTLES

Select Yes to restart the game at the beginning of the battle, or select No to end the game.

GROUP BATTLES WITH POLICE

You're arrested and hauled off to jail.

- There may be times when you are not arrested.

VS BATTLES

YOU HAVE AN ALLY WITH REMAINING LIFE

Control switches to that character.

YOU HAVE NO ALLIES WITH REMAINING LIFE

Select Yes to retry the game from the beginning of the battle, or select No to quit the game.

The game starts off with the Mob on your trail. Your basic aim is to move around, talk to people, build up your gang, earn money, and ultimately exact revenge.

CONVERSATION

You can communicate with people on the street. Walk up to a person and press the X button to talk to the person.

The action window opens and you can choose how to interact with the person.

- Some characters will initiate conversation once you get close enough.

NEGOTIATION (● button)

Select negotiation (page 16), then select what you want to get from the person. If negotiation fails, the situation will escalate into a fight.

BATTLE (■ button)

Challenge the person to a fight.

FIGHTING

You'll enter fighting mode if you do any of the following: hit a person, fail to negotiate, are discovered by an enemy, or purposely put a person down. Fighting mode has two types of battles: VS battle and group battle.

VS BATTLES

Go 1-on-1 with your opponent and use a variety of moves to gain the upper hand. If you have friends with you at the time, it may be a team VS battle of up to 3-on-3. Use your attack buttons combined with the left analog stick/directional buttons to perform a variety of moves. Winning a VS battle may give you the advantage in negotiation.

GROUP BATTLES

Group battles involve a large number of people fighting at once. In group battles:

- Friends fight alongside you.
- No one can use negotiation.
- You can perform devastator (page 8) area attacks.
- You can use moves and blocks specially designed for group battle fighting.

ALLIES

You can have up to two friends fighting alongside you to get your back at all times.

CALLING FRIENDS

All your friends are listed on the black list (page 20), so you can call them up at any time and have them join you.

RECRUITING

Select recruit during negotiation, and if you are successful, the person you're negotiating with will join your forces. The black list also contains information on people you can become friends with, so check it often to see who you can recruit next.

FRIENDS WITH SKILLS

Some of the friends you make along the way have certain skills that can prove useful, unlock certain sub missions, etc.

- You have a friendship level for each friend that changes depending on your actions in the game. As the level increases, the friend becomes more useful and helps you out even more.

NEGOTIATION

Negotiate during conversations or VS battles to gain money and/or valuable information, or to recruit more people. During negotiation you can use the following strategies:

RECRUIT

Ask someone to join your gang. If you're successful, the person is added to the black list and becomes a member of your team.

ROB

Ask for money. Robbing people is a main source of cash.

INTERROGATE

Ask for information. Some information is vital in your quest for revenge.

BEATDOWN

(VS battle only) Attack an opponent until the person expires. Be careful: If a passerby witnesses what you're doing, you will be reported to the authorities and an arrest warrant (page 17) will be issued for you.

CANCEL

Cancel out of the negotiation.

Negotiation

NEGOTIATING DURING VS BATTLES

Press the ○ button to grab your opponent and initiate the negotiation. (Alternatively, press the R1 button to grab your opponent, and then press the ○ button.)

The pride gauge is directly related to your success in negotiating. If you enter negotiations with the opponent's pride gauge at zero, your success is guaranteed. Just initiating negotiations depletes your opponent's pride gauge, so even if the person's gauge is slightly above zero, you can still succeed if entering negotiations drops the gauge to zero.

- If negotiations don't succeed, the opponent will retaliate.

ITEMS FOR NEGOTIATING

Some weapons can make the negotiation process go more smoothly. During negotiations, you'll use whatever weapon you have equipped to try and coerce your opponent. People respond differently to the same weapons, so experiment!

ARREST WARRANTS & DISGUISES

ARREST WARRANT	If someone reports you for a murder or if you escape from jail, the police will put out a warrant for your arrest. If you lose a fight with cops or get arrested, you will be hauled off to jail.
DANGER LEVEL	If there is a warrant for your arrest, or you do things that draw attention to yourself, the police detection indicator percentage will increase. This increases the likelihood that the police will come after you.
POLICE REACTIONS	Police reactions change depending on the danger level . If your danger level is at 100%, they will definitely notice you and come after you. Below 100%, police usually leave you alone. If you act suspiciously, your danger level will increase, along with the likelihood that you will get spotted. Play it cool.
MOB REACTIONS	Like the police detection indicator, the mob detection indicator shows the percentage of likelihood the Zanetti Family will discover you and come after you. Again, if this indicator reaches 100%, they will surely find you.
DISGUISES	Effective at lowering the danger level . Buy clothing at shops around town and change your clothes there or in changing rooms. Wearing a disguise helps to decrease your danger level .
JAIL	When you get arrested and taken to jail, you can either post bail or fight to get out. Posting bail cancels your arrest warrant, but escaping jail doesn't. If your friends get arrested, you can bust them out of jail or pay their bail to spring them.

SUB MISSIONS

During the game you will be presented with various sub missions from specific characters. Taking on these jobs and completing them wins you money as a reward.

ACCEPTING A SUB MISSION

First view the offered reward and requirements. If you accept a sub mission, you may have to comply with certain requirements in order to complete it.

CONFIRMING SUB MISSION STATUS

Check your current sub missions status in the missions section of the inventory. You can also check the completion status of all sub missions.

CANCELING A SUB MISSION

CRIMINAL LEVEL

Your criminal level affects various things throughout the game, possibly even the game's outcome. Three factors (below) control the criminal level, depending on the actions you take during the game. You can view your criminal level when you save the game (page 21).

Las Sombras is a city overrun with crime, notorious for always being in the top ten most crime-ridden cities. It's an easy city to get around in, with highways, trains, a harbor, etc. Industrialization helped the city grow, but the economy is stagnating, with things steadily drifting downhill. The main industry in town is the Zanetti Family's underground dealings. The outskirts of town are home to expensive residential areas, but it's so dangerous at night you shouldn't walk anywhere alone.

ATMS

There are plenty of ATMs across the city for 24-hour service. But it's hard to imagine who the customers are, since it seems like the machines get robbed nearly every night.

"THE HOLE"

Famous downtown watering spot, run by Melvin, a well-respected Las Sombras citizen. Compared to other places in town, the customers who hang out in this bar seem to be pretty friendly. Definitely check it out if you're new in town.

PALM VIEW HOTEL

Like the police station, this high-class hotel is pretty big compared to the city it resides in, with a nice view of the skyscrapers lined up below it. The rooms probably cost a fortune.

POLICE STATION

The police station seems inordinately large compared to the size of the city, with plenty of cops to boot. Enough to clean up the crime in Las Sombras if they were to put their minds to it. But that doesn't seem likely to happen any time soon. Arrested criminals are kept in the jail beneath the station, but with the recent rise in crime, most of the inmates there are just hoodlums and punks. This is one place to avoid at all costs.

TAXIS

Useful for getting around. But being the town that this is, taxis won't always stop for you, so it may be easier to "borrow" a car.
