Background

Once upon a time, there was a kingdom named Dokapon where the people enjoyed nothing more than their money. The sight of its golden glimmer, the comforting clink of a full wallet, the metallic taste of a freshly minted coin... Everyone loved their cash, and nobody loved it more than the King.

One day, monsters appeared out of nowhere and attacked the towns of Dokapon Kingdom. These monsters stole people's money for their own mysterious reasons, and the people became so poor that they were unable to pay their taxes to the King.

The King, moved to tears by the plight of his people and his income, called upon heroes from far and wide to free his people from the monsters. The reward for this dangerous task is the beautiful Princess Penny's hand in marriage and the throne of Dokapon Kingdom!

A journey full of danger, intrigue, betrayal, and cold, hard cash is about to begin!

King

The King of Dokapon Kingdom. He is obsessed with money; it's all he ever thinks about. He dotes on his only daughter, Princess Penny.

Princess Penny

She looks delicate and demure, but she's very selfish. She loves her dog, Cash, whom her father bought her for her birthday.

So, What is Dokapon Kingdom?

Basic Rules

Dokapon Kingdom is a large nation that spans across 7 different continents. Spin the wheel to move across the boards and free towns from the monsters. Govern the towns you have freed to increase your wealth.

Defeat Your Rivals in Battle!

You'll fight more than monsters in Dokapon Kingdom; you can also fight other players. If you win, you can take your opponent's money, items, or even pull a prank on the loser.

Power Up by Changing Jobs

It's possible to change a character's job once that character has enough experience with their current class. Since different classes learn different skills and have different stat growths, you can truly customize your characters to defeat monsters and be more powerful than the other players!

Money is Everything

Types of Spaces

There are many different kinds of spaces. Different things will happen when players land on them. Some of them will help you, while others can cause you problems. Make sure you know what can happen before you move to another space!

Empty Space

You'll encounter monsters and character events when landing on Empty Spaces. If you land on an Empty Space with another player on it, you will enter a battle with that player. If you land on a space where another player is currently in a fight, you can choose who you want to battle. (P.24)

Magic Space

Stop the spinner with the X button. You will get the field magic that the spinner stops on. In the beginning of the game, when you have little money and low stats, it may be a good idea to land on this space.

Item Space

Stop the spinner with the X button. You will get the item that the spinner stops on. In the beginning of the game, when you have little money and low stats, it may be a good idea to land on this space.

Money Box

Red Loot Box

Locked Box

White Loot Box

Bank Space

You can either collect taxes and Local Items from the towns (P.14) or castles (P.18) that you own, or invest in a town you own. Choose a town or castle, then select to "Invest" or "Collect." A Collection Space allows you to collect taxes from all the property you own at once.

Bank Space

Collection Space

Castles cannot be invested in at Bank Spaces.

Harm Space

If you land on one of these spaces, you will be damaged or poisoned, and you will also encounter an enemy. Try to avoid landing on these if you can.

Warp Space

By throwing money into the Levito Spring, players can be transported to either Dokapon Castle or a Temple. Select your destination from the list and press the X button to confirm.

Dark Space

Something's odd about this space... Some people have been known to become quite powerful after landing here, but at what cost? If being in last place is driving you batty, you may want to head to the Dark Space.

Passage Space

Landing on this space will let you move to a different map.

Towns

If you free a town from the monster that is terrorizing it, the grateful townspeople will declare you their owner. You can collect taxes from the towns you govern, which is the best way to earn wealth and increase your ranking among the other players. In Story Mode, killing the Big Monsters in towns will allow the story to progress.

■ Liberate the towns!

Towns can be freed by defeating the monster attacking it. If a town is not controlled by another player and it has no monster on it, just landing on the Town Space will give you the town. When you own a town, that town's value is added to your total worth.

If you save a town from exceptionally tough monsters, the King will have a prize for you.

■ Invest in your towns!

When you land on a town you govern, the people will ask if you would like to invest some money into that town. If you do, the town's level will go up and the town may become more valuable. If a town's level is high enough, the town will occasionally produce a Local Item. You can also invest in towns at a Bank Space. (P.13)

The level and the value of a town might change because of an event.

■ Collecting Taxes

Every day, the town will generate taxes for you. To collect those taxes, you will have to land on a town that you own, or you can stop at a Bank Space to receive the tax money.

The higher the town's level, the more money it will pay you.

■ Local Items

When a town's level is high enough, it may create a special Local Item for the player who owns it. You can sell these items at a shop, or give them to the King as a present.

The King might not like everything you bring him... Try it and see!

When you land on another player's town...

If you land on a town owned by another player, a menu will appear. If you select "Stay" you can pay money to heal HP. This money will be added to the town's saved taxes. If you select "Attack" you can steal the tax money and Local Item from that town. If you select "Exit" you will leave without doing anything.

Landing on a town you own will let you stay and heal HP for no charge.

When you attack a town...

You'll play Roshambo with the town's mayor. If you win, you receive the collected tax money and Local Item for that town. If you lose, you'll be 'Wanted' for a week. If another player defeats a 'Wanted' player, they will receive a nice reward.

Ask yourself:
Is attacking this town really worth the risk? Consider attacking towns that have a lot of tax money...

□ :Rock
○ :Paper
× :Scissors
Press the corresponding button to play that hand.

Win!

You win the Local Item (if available) and the tax money from that town. But, you can't take the town itself.

Lose...

You will be declared a Wanted criminal for a week. When you are Wanted, you won't be able to stop on any building spaces.

Dokapon Castle

This is where the King lives. When you enter the castle, your HP will be healed and status effects will be cured. Several options are only available at Dokapon Castle.

Status effects that make you unable to enter Dokapon Castle cannot be cured by landing on this space.

Job	You can change your character's job here. Before you change jobs, you can see the stats of each class. Select an available job and press the X button to confirm. Some jobs require you to meet certain prerequisites. If you get a message saying that a new job is available, try going back to the castle!
Gift	If you give the King a Local Item, he will add the value of the item to your total worth. The King has his likes and dislikes, and the values of the items will vary.
Hair	You can change your hairstyle by getting a haircut from the Royal Stylist, Karlie. Select the new style you want from the list.
Exit	You will return to the map.

Temples

The Temples will heal some status effects for free. You can send Local Items to the King from the Temples, as well. When sending items to the King, you can choose whose name to put on the card. If you have something you know the King hates, you might want to put someone else's name on it. If you are killed, you will be revived at the last Temple you visited.

Heal	Cures some status effects for free. The status effects that can be cured here are listed on Page 17.
Gift	If you give the King a Local Item, he will add the value of the item to your total net worth. The King has his likes and dislikes, and the values of the items differ. You can also choose who it says the item came from. Use this to your advantage!

Battle Rules

Each battle consists of one offensive turn and one defensive turn. When one of the combatants reaches 0 HP or gives up, the battle is over. If the battle isn't over after each combatant has had one offensive turn, the battle will continue the next day. You cannot move on the field map while you are in battle.

When the battle begins, the player initiating the battle will choose cards to decide who will attack first. Choose a card with the directional buttons and select it with the × button.

Offensive Turn
Offensive side: Attack by selecting a command.
Defensive side: Defend by selecting a command.

Defensive Turn
After the first attack, the attacker and defender will switch places.

Battle undecided

If either fighter loses or surrenders...

Next Player
Battle is put on hold until next turn.

Battle Over!
You may gain EXP, gold, and items for winning battles.

Attack Commands

These are the commands you can use when taking offensive action. Choose any button to attack the opponent. Certain conditions may make you unable to use certain commands.

- button: Attack      △ button: Offensive Magic
- button: Strike      × button: Battle Skill

Defensive Commands

These are the commands you can use when taking defensive action. Choose any button to defend against the opponent's attack. Certain conditions may make you unable to use certain commands.

- button: Defend      △ button: Defensive Magic
- button: Counter      × button: Give Up

The Command Relationships

Each command has pros and cons. Usually, the best defense for an attack is the same button as the attack itself. These are the following relations:

Attack	VS	Defend	➔	Decrease in damage to the defender
Strike	VS	Counter	➔	Defender takes no damage + Counter attack
Atk Magic	VS	Def Magic	➔	Decrease or nullify damage and magical effects.

Battle Ends

If one of the combatant's HP drops to 0, or they Give Up, the battle is over. If both combatants are still standing at the end of both their offensive turns, the battle continues.

■ If the battle ended

By winning battles, you can get items, gold, and EXP, and can continue with the game on your next turn.

■ If the battle did not end

The battle will continue the next day. The space where the battle is taking place will have a fighting cloud over it. If another player moves onto this space, that player can choose who to fight.

To the Victor Go the Spoils!

When you win a battle against a monster, you get EXP, money, and sometimes items. If you defeat another player, you might get EXP and can select an action from the list below. The options available will vary depending on how you defeated your opponent.

Rob	You can take away your opponent's items, money, or property.
Give	Pass a negative effect you are currently suffering, or an unwanted item you are carrying, on to the opponent.
Prank	You can take away your opponent's dignity in a variety of fun ways.
Forgive	You can forgive the opponent, and let them off easy.

Leveling Up and Getting Skills

Once you have earned enough EXP through battle, you will level up. Your HP will be refilled, your stats will increase according to your current and mastered jobs, and you can choose some stats to increase yourself. Fighting enough battles will increase your job experience and allow you to learn new Battle Skills. You will be able to choose whether you want to learn the new skill or keep the skill you currently have.

If You Lose a Battle

Depending on how and to whom you lose, the outcome will change.

When your HP drops to 0

If your HP reaches 0, you will be sent to Dokapon Castle or the last temple you visited. You will be revived after 1~3 turns. If you are defeated by a monster, you may lose money, items, etc. If you are defeated by another player, you will receive the punishment that the opponent chooses. If the opponent chooses to insult or forgive you, you will not lose anything.

When you Give Up

You will get penalized for giving up, but not as much as when you are defeated. Giving up is a viable tactic if you know that you can't beat your opponent.

Character Events

These events occur randomly when you land on an Empty Space. In these events, mysterious characters will appear and speak with you. These are just some of the people you will meet:

Gutz the Blacksmith

If you pay Gutz what he asks, he will create a weapon or a shield for you. There is a slight chance that he may be unsuccessful.

Mitch Digger

When Mitch appears, he will ask if you want to pay him to dig a hole near one of the towns you own to create a hot spring and increase the town's value. There is a chance that he will fail.

Kira the Merchant

She sells items that you usually can't find in regular shops. Of course, you can try to rob her, but why would you want to do that?

Rico Jr.

Rico Jr. will appear and challenge you to a battle. He's very strong, and you won't receive EXP for defeating him, but he may drop a special item.

Weekly Ranking

After every Saturday, the Weekly Ranking will be announced. The ranking will be shown as detailed below:

Rank	Player	Job	Total Value

Current Money

Salary

Asset Values

You can see the value of the properties owned by all the players.

Total Value

The players' net worth will appear.

Rankings

Ranking will be given to the players based on their net worth.

Graph

This line graph shows how the players have been performing in relation to each other.

If you press the  button, it will go back to the Ranking Screen. Press the  button to save, and the  button to continue the game without saving.

Weekly Events

Sometimes a Weekly Event will occur on Sunday. There are good events and bad events that will affect everyone. Here are some of the Weekly Events that can occur:

Bargain Sale

All goods will be 40% off in all stores! When this is in effect, you will have a week to purchase items at this reduced price.

Epidemic

A serious disease has begun to spread... The King needs to collect taxes from all the towns to support his health care program!

Thief!

A mysterious thief appears and steals money from the coffers of player-controlled towns... then gives it to the lowest-ranked player! The towns struck by this burglary will be chosen at random.

Wabbit Explosion

When this event occurs, every time you land on an Empty Space, there's a high chance that you will encounter a Wabbit. They say that someone who can defeat a Wabbit will have good luck...

Mini-Games

Sometimes, you will be able to participate in mini-game events instead of having Weekly Events.

Green Coliseum

The richest man in the world, Green Jr., is holding a gladiatorial contest. When this event occurs, all the players will be moved to the Coliseum and fight each other. Green Jr.'s hired mercenary, Comacho, will also join the fight to keep things interesting. The last one standing is declared the winner. During this event, you will not be able to surrender or run away.

*After this event, all characters will start from the Coliseum Space.

Hairstyle Contest

Karlie the Stylist will announce a hairstyle contest and tell you the contest's theme. The show will take place in one week. After that period, all players will gather at Dokapon Castle to participate in the fashion show. Karlie, the King, and Princess Penny will grade everyone on their appearance and adherence to the theme. The player in first place will receive a cash prize.

XIII (Thirteen)

Green Jr. has decided to play a card game with all the players, and all players are obligated to participate. Thirteen cards are placed on the table. Players will take turns drawing cards until someone gets the Angel card. Whoever gets the Angel card will win a cash prize.

Dokapon Cards

Another one of Green Jr.'s card games. The objective is to find matching cards. If you get a match, you will win the item shown on the card and go again. If you get a bomb card, you will lose one of the items you've won so far! If one player gets all of the matches, there will be a bonus.

Normal Mode

In this mode, you get to choose how many weeks you want to play before the game ends. The winner is the person who has the most money at that time.

Setting the Week Limit

Choose how many weeks you want to play, from 1 to 999. This number can be changed by going to Data and Settings > Objective during the game.

Results

Once the set number of weeks have passed, the game's results will be announced at Dokapon Castle. Once the ranking is done, you can save your clear data and return to the title screen.

Battle Royale

There are 3 different kinds of races in this game mode. Each one has specific requirements. This is different from the other game modes, as money is not the objective here. You can view the goal at any time by going to Data and Settings > Mode.

Town Race	The winner is the person who can liberate the selected town first. The town will be selected at random.
Kill Race	A race to defeat the other players a specified number of times. You will not be able to surrender when fighting other players.
Shopping Race	Whoever brings the designated items to Dokapon Castle first wins! All the items must be in your inventory at once.
