WARNING: READ BEFORE USING YOUR PLAYSTATION®2 COMPUTER ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM.

A very small percentage of individuals may experience epileptic seizures when exposed to certain light patterns or flashing lights. Exposure to certain patterns or backgrounds on a television screen or while playing video games, including games played on the PlayStation 2 console, may induce an epileptic seizure in these individuals. Certain conditions may induce previously undetected epileptic symptoms even in persons who have no history of prior seizures or epilepsy. If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game – dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions – IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

WARNING TO OWNERS OF PROJECTION TELEVISIONS:

Do not connect your PlayStation 2 console to a projection TV without first consulting the user manual for your projection TV, unless it is of the LCD type. Otherwise, it may permanently damage your TV screen.

USE OF UNAUTHORIZED PRODUCT:

The use of software or peripherals not authorized by Sony Computer Entertainment America may damage your console and/or invalidate your warranty. Only official or licensed peripherals should be used in the controller ports or memory card slots.

HANDLING YOUR PLAYSTATION 2 FORMAT DISC:

- This disc is intended for use only with PlayStation 2 consoles with the NTSC U/C designation.
- Do not bend it, crush it or submerge it in liquids.
- Do not leave it in direct sunlight or near a radiator or other source of heat.
- Be sure to take an occasional rest break during extended play.
- Keep this compact disc clean. Always hold the disc by the edges and keep it in its protective case when not in use. Clean the disc with a lint-free, soft, dry cloth, wiping in straight lines from center to outer edge.
Never use solvents or abrasive cleaners.

Foreword

The stories of the illustrious Samurai Warriors are recounted here.

Kessen III is the tumultuous story of Nobunaga Oda's battle to overcome the chaos of the Sengoku era in order to bring peace to the land. The beauty of the drama and the excitement of the action is underscored by the music of master composer Reijiro Koroku performed by the Sengoku Orchestra.

A relentless rebellion.

A people plunged into anguish and darkness.

At the threshold of hope stands
Nobunaga Oda.

"I shall destroy this world of chaos and suffering!"

Nobunaga Oda

The Lord of the Oda family of Owari. His unconventional style and flamboyant appearance earned him the scorn of his elders. But Nobunaga possessed extraordinary courage and resourcefulness. He pushes along the path of war, fighting to bring an end to the turbulent times that torment his people.

This rebellion will be crushed!
The world that is absorbed in sorrow shall be lifted out of its misery!

I am Kicho.....
Please love me, forever.

Kicho

The Princess of Mino, the country neighboring Owari. Through an arranged marriage, she became Nobunaga's wife. Kicho was trained from childhood in the military arts by her father Dosan Saito. On the battlefield, her magnificent dance is like that of the butterfly.

Tokichiro Kinoshita

Later named Hideyoshi Hashiba. Born to peasant farmers in Owari, Tokichiro was fascinated with Nobunaga and entered his service. Usually the jester, he is extremely witty but is excellent at getting things done.

Take me with you, and I'll fight to the end! Victory will be ours!

Katsuei Shibata

The greatest warrior within the Oda family. He knows no fear, even when facing overwhelming enemy numbers. He is stubborn when it comes to justice, but falls in love with Nobunaga's sister, Oichi.

Motoyasu Matsudaira

Later known as Ieyasu Tokugawa. Part of his youth was spent as a prisoner of the Imagawa family. For a period, he served the Oda family, and came to know Nobunaga at that time. He is particularly cautious.

Yoshinari Mori

Has served to protect Nobunaga since Nobunaga was young. He sees through Nobunaga's unusual appearance, hoping that his hand will suppress the troubled times.

Toshiie Maeda

A vassal to Nobunaga, he respects and admires him. He is very cheerful and livens up the whole family, but in battle he wields a spear like a raging lion.

Nagahide Niwa

Childhood friends with Toshiie Maeda, he has served Nobunaga since he was young. He is steady and honest but tends to worry, and is always at Nobunaga's beck and call. His defense is stronger than his offense.

This realm is mine - and I shall celebrate my glory as I please!

Yoshiaki Ashikaga

The 15th Shogun of the Muromachi Shogunate. When Yoshiteru, the 13th Shogun, was killed, Yoshiaki was driven from the capital and forced to wander the land. In time, he will benefit from Nobunaga's strength, and will try to regain his former stature.

Fujinaga Isshiki

He travels the land in Yoshiaki's service, striving to restore the Shogunate.

Tatsuoki Saito

Lord of the Saito family, and Kicho's nephew. Tatsuoki's father attacked Kicho's father, Dosan Saito, and captured Inabayama Castle. He will do anything to achieve his goals.

Shingen Takeda

Feared as the "Tiger of Kai," he is the Supreme Commander of the Takeda forces. He commands an unmatched cavalry unit and is waiting for the chance to unify the land.

Kenshin Uesugi

The Supreme Commander of the Uesugi forces, he is nicknamed the "Dragon of Echigo". He loves sake and is fond of Chinese poetry. He boasts of his superior commanding skills, and lives for battle.

Mitsuhide Akechi

He was originally a vassal of the Saito family, and was hired to protect Kicho, but after touring other countries he came to serve Nobunaga. He is a master with firearms. Nobunaga relies heavily on him because he is an excellent strategist and tactician.

My armies will bring redemption! I shall attack my enemy where they are weakest!

PLANNING SCREEN

Game flow

Repeat the process of planning, war council, and battle to move through the game.

If you are defeated in battle....

The game is not yet over, and you return to the Planning Screen. You cannot keep items acquired in battle, but your experience points will increase slightly.

Buy and sell equipment to prepare for battle, and then choose your next battlefield.

Set up formations, instruct units of their objectives, and change equipment.

Battle the enemy and meet the victory conditions.

What to do in Planning

First, purchase equipment from the merchants, and then prepare your main base for deployment. After choosing a battlefield, you can continue on to War Council.

Decisive Battle 	Winning these battles will advance you through the story line and open up new battles for you to fight.
Major Battle 	Winning these battles will advance the story line. When an important battle appears, you may not be able to choose another major battle.
Minor Battle 	Even by winning these battles the story line will not advance, but you can earn gold and experience points.

Headquarters 	Change equipment and troop types. You can also check the war records in the annals.
Merchants 	Buy and sell equipment and troop types.

Buying and Selling Equipment

When you visit a merchant in the Planning Screen, you can buy or sell equipment. However, you cannot sell equipment that you have equipped. Before deciding on equipment, use the L1 and R2 buttons to view your officers, and equip them as necessary.

Equipment Info

Types of Equipment

	Weapons	Primarily increases WAR(military power).
	Armor	Primarily increases STA (stamina). In some cases, armor may increase Officer Troop Ability.
	Helmets	Primarily increases INT(intelligence). In some cases, helmets may increase Officer Troop Ability.
	Accessories	Increases Officer Troop Abilities, Troop Skills, changes Officer Class, etc.
	Horses	Increases the speed of the unit; effective in Rampage.
	Manuals	Enables Officer Skills (→P. 21). When an Officer Skill reaches Level 1, it can be used even when the Manual is not equipped.
	Troop Type	Type of troop an officer leads into battle. The number of troops varies depending on the officer's level and rank. When the battle is finished, the troop numbers are recovered.

Select Your Troop Type Based on Officer Troop Abilities

You can purchase the type of troops you want from a merchant. Each troop type has designated ATT(attack) and DEF(defensive) settings. Choosing a troop type that corresponds with a high Officer Troop Ability will increase that unit's abilities even further. Use the button to compare changes in the ATT and DEF power before equipping a new troop type.

Restore Nobunaga's Condition During Minor Battles

In Decisive and Major Battles, Nobunaga will always be the commanding officer. However, Minor Battles can be fought without Nobunaga. After continuous battles, Nobunaga's condition worsens due to fatigue. Allow him to rest by fighting Minor Battles with other officers.

WAR COUNCIL

After selecting a battle, you move on to War Council. While there, you can position your units, give orders and change your equipment. To start the battle, select Start Battle.

Auto Deploy

Auto Deploy will position units automatically. High level officers and officers in good condition will take priority.

The range of the targets that can be chosen differs with the level and type of Officer Skill.

Targeting Range (Blue)

Choose a target from any unit within range.

Effective Range (Red)

Officer Skill will affect all units within this range.

(Officer Skill Types)

Type	Contents
Support	Creates a favorable situation for an ally unit. Only affects one unit (except for X-Rally and X-Heal).
Tactical	Create a unfavorable situation for an enemy unit. Only affects one unit (except for X-Silence and X-Doubt).
Offensive	Inflicts damage to the enemy. Affects all enemy units within effective range.
Ninjutsu	Use powerful stealth techniques. Affects all enemy units within range.
Samurai	Officer rides alone to cut deep into the enemy force in Rampage mode. (→P. 24)

Healing and Tactical Skills Cannot Be Used Simultaneously

Healing and Tactical type Officer Skills cannot be used on top of each other. If cast one after the other, only the Skill used later will have an effect.

Troop Skills

Press down the △ button → Release

Press and hold the △ button, then release it to deliver a death blow unique to each troop type.

- * Allied troops are also sent flying but will not suffer any troop losses.
- * Press the L1 button to defend against ally Troop Skills.
- * Long distance attacks cannot be used unless your unit is in proper formation.

1 While holding △, use the left analog stick to adjust the direction.

2 The power of the Troop Skill is building, as demonstrated by the sounds and the glow.

3 Release the △ button to commence the attack. Once it begins, it cannot be controlled.

Avoid attack while storing power

If you are attacked while holding the △ button, you will sustain twice the usual damage and will be confused for a short time. Movement and attack range vary by unit, so make sure that there is enough space between you and the enemy.

Aim for a Critical Attack

If you succeed in executing the following Troop Skill-related attacks, you can inflict twice the usual amount of damage on the enemy.

Halt	Attack a unit that is storing power for a Troop Skill.
Close Quarters	Use "Deathwheel" or "Cavalry Charge" when extremely close to the enemy.
Counter Offensive	Counterattack using the same Troop Skill that the enemy is using.

Coordinate

Multiply Attack Power

The attack power of the Coordinated Attack may multiply depending on a number of factors, such as the positions of the two units, officer condition, troop types, etc. Test various combinations to maximize your attack power. (not applicable to Cover Fire)

*Attack power does not double in Cover Fire.

Don't Get Entangled in an Allied Troop Skill

If you are hit by an ally performing a Troop Skill, you will not sustain damage, however, your troops will be blown back and it will reflect negatively in your post-battle evaluation. Pay attention to your position and use your defenses.

Positioning: Order the Cover Fire attack when you are out of the line of fire.

Defense: A unit can always defend against an ally Troop Skill. Be aware of ally activity so that you don't become a victim of bad timing.

Troop Type Ability
 (The blue number indicates the troop type currently equipped.)

Officer Skills and Level
 The skill highlighted in blue is the skill for which a manual is currently equipped. A skill for which a manual is equipped gains experience points even if it is not used.

Level (LV)	Increases as you gain experience (max: 50). As the level increases, the officer's attributes and troop numbers also increase.
Experience	Current experience/experience needed to increase level. Increases by partaking in battles. Experience can increase more if the officer defeats enemy units or by acquiring items. (sword) during Rampage mode.
Rank	Determines the number of troops you lead. Rank may increase if the officer gains glory on the battlefield (such as by defeating the enemy commander).
Class	Officer class affects how officer attributes and Officer Skill levels increase.	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Class</th> <th>Faster Rising Attributes</th> <th>Faster Learned Officer Skill Types</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>All</td> <td>War, Intelligence, Stamina</td> <td>Support, Offensive</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Warrior</td> <td>War, Stamina</td> <td>None</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Tactician</td> <td>War, Intelligence</td> <td>Tactical, Offensive</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Priest</td> <td>Intelligence, Stamina</td> <td>Support, Tactical</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ninja</td> <td>War, Intelligence, Stamina</td> <td>Ninjutsu</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Class	Faster Rising Attributes	Faster Learned Officer Skill Types	All	War, Intelligence, Stamina	Support, Offensive	Warrior	War, Stamina	None	Tactician	War, Intelligence	Tactical, Offensive	Priest	Intelligence, Stamina	Support, Tactical	Ninja	War, Intelligence, Stamina	Ninjutsu
Class	Faster Rising Attributes	Faster Learned Officer Skill Types
All	War, Intelligence, Stamina	Support, Offensive
Warrior	War, Stamina	None
Tactician	War, Intelligence	Tactical, Offensive
Priest	Intelligence, Stamina	Support, Tactical
Ninja	War, Intelligence, Stamina	Ninjutsu
Condition	Physical conditions are Excellent, Good, Normal, Wounded and Down. Your unit's attack power increases and the Skill Slot gauge starts higher at the start of battle when your condition is high. Conditions will change with each battle. Conditions will be more likely to fall the more you fight, and will be more likely to rise if the unit is resting. If you are defeated in battle and forced to withdraw, you will begin the next battle "Down". Also, by defeating all enemy troops or defeating an enemy officer in Rampage, your condition rises one level. If you are defeated in Rampage, your condition will fall one level.
War	Influences unit attack power and attack power in Rampage.
Intelligence	Influences the power and period of effectiveness of officer skills, and the time limits in Rampage.
Stamina	Influences the unit's defensive power, and stamina during Rampage.
Troop Type Ability	Influences Attack and Defense attributes for different troop types. Lead the various troop types into battle to increase ability levels. (max:10)
Troop Type	Number of troops and Troop type equipped. The number of troops is determined by the Troop type rank and level.
Battle Policy	Battle strategy of non player controlled units. Can be changed in the War Council or with the "Battle Policy" command from the battle map.
Attack	Unit attack power. Determined by the officer's WAR level, troop type ability, equipped troop type, and equipped equipmen.

OFFICER DATA

Training Officers

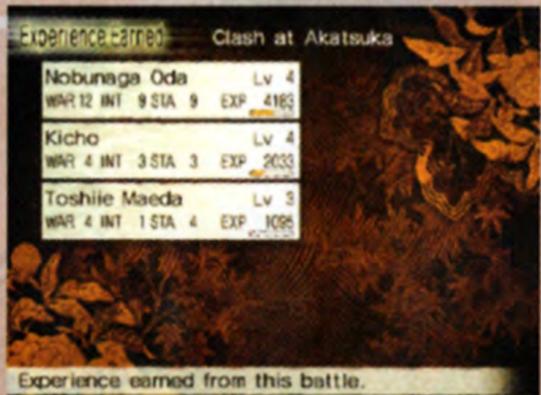

The extent to which an officer develops is determined by battle outcomes. Go for maximum experience points by making effective formations and equipping your officers with the best possible equipment.

Techniques for Strengthening Officer Skills

Each time an officer skill is used in battle, experience is earned. When your experience points rise to a certain point, the skill level will increase. If the officer has a manual equipped, he can still gain experience points for the corresponding Officer Skill without actually using the skill in battle. Some officer skills are better suited for certain Classes (Tactician, Warrior, etc.). If the Officer Skill used matches the officer's Class, you will gain even greater experience points.

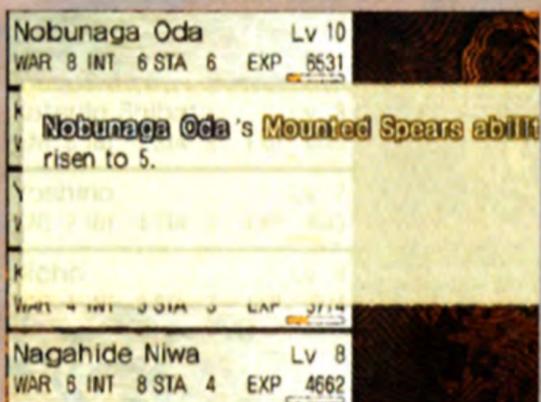

Some valuable manuals will allow you to learn several Officer Skills at once. There are some extremely rare manuals that are difficult to acquire.

Increasing Attributes by Earning Experience

By gaining experience in battle, the officer's level increases along with his attributes and troop numbers. If you win the battle, all officers will gain experience, but those officers who distinguish themselves in battle by defeating enemy units or those who pick up "Swords" in Rampage mode will receive experience bonuses. On the other hand, officers that retreat will lose half their experience points. You can gain even more experience points by defeating enemy officers that are stronger than you.

The officer's Class determines precisely how attributes will rise. Class can be changed by equipping Juzu's. Change officer Class to build up attributes that may otherwise rise slowly.

Increasing Rank and Troop Type Abilities

When gaining experience in battle, the troop type abilities will also rise (for the troop type used in that battle). If the troop type ability increases, that troop type's attack and defense attributes will increase. Rank will increase as an officer distinguishes himself on the battlefield. Achievements such as delivering the "First Strike" in a battle, or defeating a famous officer, will lead to rank promotions. When your rank increases the number of troops you can command on the battlefield also increases.

"Commander Kill" indicates the officer that defeated the enemy commander, "First Kill" indicates the officer first defeated an enemy officer, and "First Strike" indicates the officer that attacked an enemy first.

Change Your Appearance by Equipping Items

If you buy equipment with the gold you earned in battle, you will not only raise your abilities, you can also change your outward appearance as you wish. Do this with weapons, helmets, and armor, and march to battle with your new equipment. In the merchant and equipment screens, use the right analog stick to rotate the officer. Be sure to check out how your officer looks from behind as well.

There are over 450 types of equippable items. Should you focus on ability, or appearance...it's your call.

The full KESSEN III Experience

Abundant equipment, officers at your command..., new discoveries await as you delve deeper and deeper. There are many paths to clear the game, and when you do, there is still more to discover...

Gathering Allies

When gaining victory in a battle, an officer may offer his service. Some will offer their services unconditionally, others will join you only if you take specific actions. Because an officer's strength relies upon his condition, even one new ally will increase your fighting power.

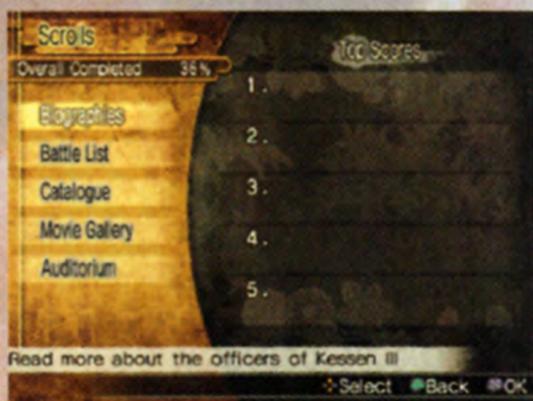

There are many officers that will offer service, and there are various conditions for their service. Play over and over and you will meet officers you never knew existed.

Strive For a High Evaluation

By earning at least an "A" in the post battle evaluation you can acquire valuable battle spoils. To achieve a high ranking you must discover and destroy all enemy units. Look at the map and dispatch your troops to place where enemy troops may be lurking. You can save time and fight effectively by issuing various orders to your battalions.

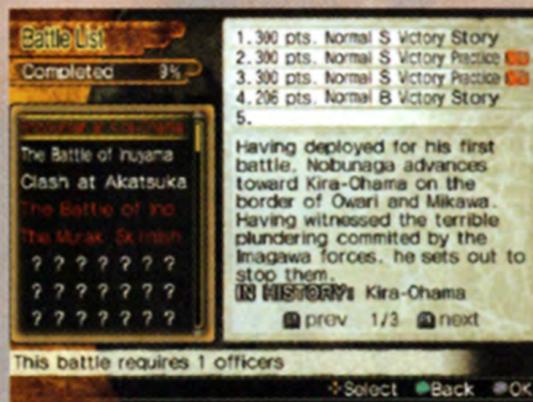

Your Troop Skills evaluation is determined by taking the number of enemy soldiers defeated using troop skills, and then subtracting the number of allied soldiers that got caught up in your own troop.

Completing the Scrolls

The "Scrolls" option from the title screen takes you to a collection detailing officers and items that you come into possession of as you play the game. Besides purchasing equipment, you can acquire items by finding them on the battlefield or obtaining them as battle spoils after a victory. As you cannot fight every battle in the game your first time through, you will have to go back and choose different battles on your second play-through in order to complete the Battle List.

Top Scores are displayed once you clear the game.

Replay Battles Via the Battle List

Using the "Battle List" in the Scrolls, you can fight a previously fought battle again. Replay a battle that you enjoyed or practice a battle that you're not able to clear. However, you can not acquire items or gain experience from these practice battles.

You can also see your previous battle evaluations. Have a go at trying to break your own record.

Troop Type List

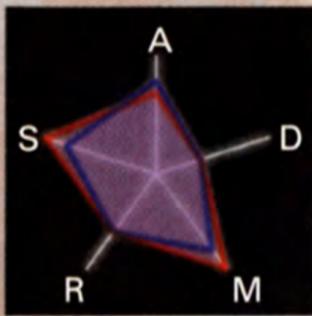

Reading the Graph

Attack(A): attack power, Defense(D): defensive power, Movement(M): mobility, Range(R): troop skill range, Speeds: Speed at which the troop skill can be unleashed.

*These graphs only indicate the general strengths of each troop skill. The actual strength will differ based on each specific troop type.  indicates levels for female troops.

Mounted Spears

Troop type suited for attacking and movement. Mounted Naginata troops are female.

Troop skill Cavalry Charge/ Naginata Charge

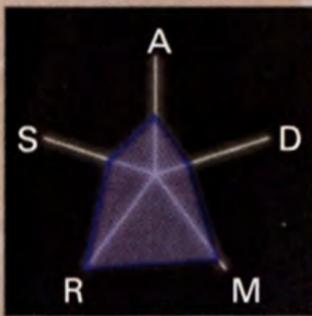

- ◆ Maintain distance from the enemy for best results.
- ◆ It will reach an enemy further off, but you must be careful not to attack in the wrong direction.

Aim for the flank of a battling enemy!

Mounted Bows

Bow units with great mobility.

Troop skill Arrow Volley

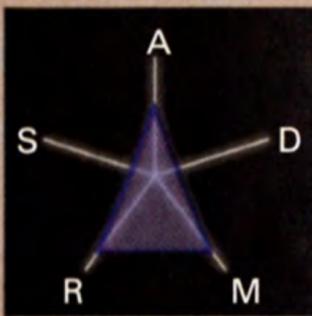

- ◆ Due to their level of mobility, it is easy to maintain a suitable distance.
- ◆ You can attack over castle gates and walls. Most effective against mounted units.

Try to keep your allies out of the line of fire.

Mounted Rifles

Rifle units with great mobility. Low defense signals vulnerability to attack.

Troop skill Rifle Volley

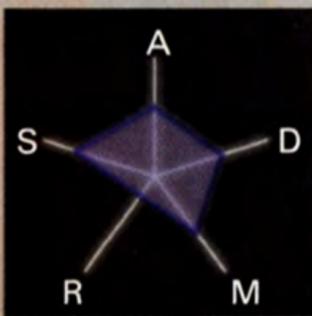

- ◆ Due to their high level of mobility, it is easy to maintain a suitable distance.
- ◆ Takes a long time to get into formation. Most effective against mounted units with low defense.

If you attack recklessly, you may shoot your own troops. Be careful!

Katana

Versatile all-round foot soldiers.

Troop skill Deathwheel

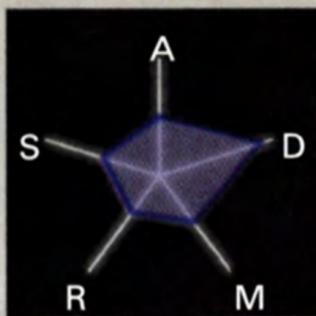

- ◆ Can attack large areas and engulf a large number of enemies.
- ◆ Can be very powerful when performed following a Break Attack. Even strong enemy units will suffer heavy damage.

Unleashing Deathwheel when you are within point-blank range of the enemy will trigger "Close Quarters", a critical attack that will increase your attack power.

Spears

A defensively strong unit type

Troop skill Spearwall

◆ As the unit maintains formation following Spearwall, you can quickly follow up with other attacks. Able to guard effectively against "Deathwheel" and "Cavalry Charge".

Strong at defending against enemy troop skill attacks.

Bows

Utilize their covering fire to wittle down enemy troops

Troop skill Arrow Volley

◆ Attack over castle gates and castle walls. Most effective against mounted units with low defense.

Be careful not to leave your rear unguarded when providing support!

Rifles

Artillery attacks are very powerful, but have a disadvantage in a confusing battle.

Troop skill Rifle Volley

◆ As it takes a lengthy amount of time to enable Rifle Volley, it's important to maintain distance.

Always be in a position to provide support.

Ninja

Extremely strong, but few in number. Female ninja are called Kunoichi.

Troop skill Shadow Strike / Shuriken

◆ Shadow Strike will always lose against other troop skills. Kunoichi can provide covering fire with Shuriken. Shuriken (throwing stars) can be unleashed very quickly, but have a short range.

Take advantage of their mobility and fight from a safe position.

Mattocks

Low abilities, but wields the powerful Bombard skill. Use unit efficiently and take care of battlefield obstacles.

Troop skill Bombard

◆ Blow up enemies by throwing bombs with Bombard. Can attack over castle gates and castle walls.

◆ As the bombs are highly visible, evasive action can be taken.

Utilize Bombard to wittle down enemy troop numbers.

*There are several more types of troop skills.

The word "NOTES" is written in a bold, black, serif font. It is positioned on a white background that has a faint, embossed pattern of overlapping circles. The text is partially overlaid by several yellow, leaf-like cutouts with irregular, wavy edges. The cutouts are layered, with some appearing in front of others, creating a sense of depth. The overall aesthetic is clean and decorative.
