The Player AI has been calculated using real-life averages from major tournaments and is based on the actual playing characteristics (stamina, belief, pressure, complacency and accuracy) of its real world counterparts.

Fluid and accurate throwing dynamics are the main focus of the game, along with the feeling that you are actually watching your chosen professional on the television, competing live – the difference being that you are controlling him/her!

Tournament sets are taken from real-life environments, and with commentary and realistic crowd sounds adding to the exciting atmosphere, PDC World Championship Darts 2008 mirrors the look and feel of real television darts.

Playing the Game

DIFFICULTY LEVELS

Amateur - The classic control mechanism. The meter is present to aid the player's aim and strength of throw.

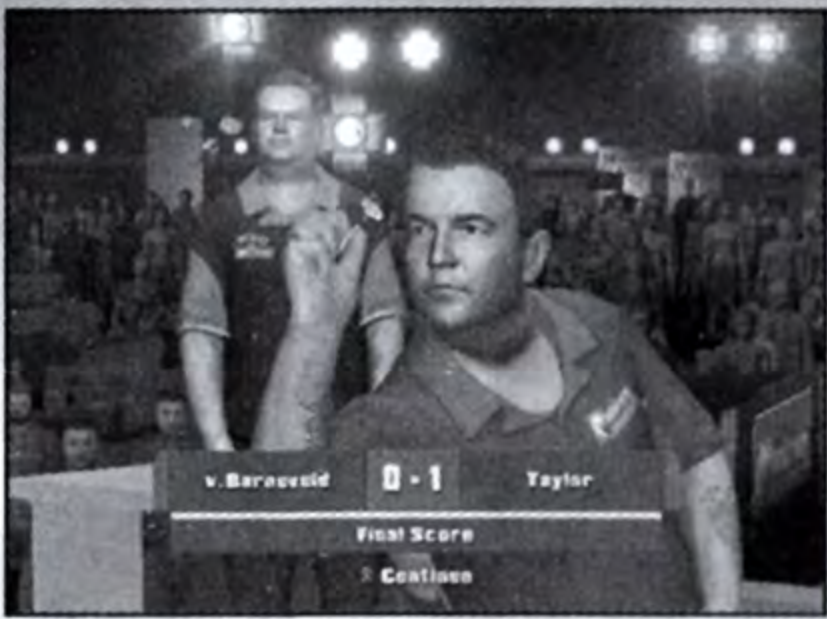

Pro - As with the original PDC World Championship Darts, the player must rely on their skill to judge the ideal point at which to release the dart for the perfect throw. The higher up the board the player aims, the lower the sweet spot will be, thus the harder the player must throw. The lower the player aims, the weaker the throw. As the gauge is not visible, the sweet spot for the perfect throw is slightly larger to compensate for this.

Master - Pro but just that little bit harder. The sweet spot for a throw is narrower than Pro mode, so more precision is required to get that perfect throw.

GAME MODES

Exhibition (1-2 Players) - Compete against an AI or human opponent in a single game of darts. Play as, or against a custom player, or one of the 16 professionals. Choose the rules and venue, plus the number of legs and sets you wish to play.

Custom Tournament (1-8 Players) - There are three options here:

1. Compete in any of the seven major tournaments in the PDC calendar
2. Create your own league
3. Create your own tournament

Create your own custom player, or play as one of the 16 professionals. As with Exhibition mode, The League and Create Your Own Tournament, this can be customized; e.g. venue, rules and the number of legs and sets you wish to play.

Career (Single Player Only) - If you choose to play as one of the 16 professionals, your ranking and prize money at the beginning of Season 1 will be as follows:

Rank	Player	Nationality	Prize Money
1	Phil Taylor	England	£337,263
2	Raymond van Barneveld	Holland	£174,808
3	Colin Lloyd	England	£112,903
4	Peter Manley	England	£101,986
5	Adrian Lewis	England	£73,644
6	Roland Scholten	Holland	£72,661
7	Terry Jenkins	England	£71,834
8	Dennis Priestley	England	£70,890
9	Wayne Mardle	England	£67,637
10	John Part	England	£62,638
11	Andrew Hamilton	England	£61,648
12	Ronnie Baxter	England	£61,457
13	Andy Jenkins	England	£61,103
14	Kevin Painter	England	£60,833
15	Mark Dudbridge	England	£60,368
16	Alan Warriner-Little	England	£60,130

The PDC Order of Merit is run on a two-year system of prize money won in PDC ranked events. Prize money comes off on the two-year anniversary of that tournament taking place. Therefore, when playing in Career mode, a two-year system is operated, beginning in May 2007 with the US Open, and running the tournaments in a chronological fashion. There are three 'open' events (where anyone can enter), which gives the player a chance to get high enough in the Order of Merit for the events where they need to be in the top 12/24/28/32. Custom players will not be able to enter the Las Vegas Desert Classic, World Matchplay, World Grand Prix or the World Championship until they are in the top 12/24/28/32 respectively. Custom players begin their careers ranked 64th and have £0 earnings.

A season starts in May, with the PDC US Open, and climaxes with the World Championship on New Year's Day. The number of seasons playable is capped to 20.

Tournament Eligibility	Players
1 PDC US Open (Open to all players)	64
2 Blue Square UK Open (Open to all players)	64
3 Las Vegas Desert Classic (Top 12 - PDC Order of Merit)	32
4 Stan James World Matchplay (Top 28 - PDC Order of Merit)	32
5 SkyBet World Grand Prix (Top 24 - PDC Order of Merit)	32
6 German Darts Championship (Open to all players)	64
7 Ladbrokes.com World Championship (Top 32 - PDC Order of Merit)	64

Before a tournament, you can take time out to practise or accept an invitation from a fellow PDC (one of the 16) player and play in an exhibition match. The practise dartboard features ultra-slim doubles and trebles some 40% narrower than the match board. The ultra-slim targets step up a player's game in practise, requiring astonishing accuracy, consistency and control.
