SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™

BACKGROUND

SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ was formed in 2008 in response to an unprecedented escalation of threats of violence against civilians around the world by a well-organized and highly ruthless transnational criminal network bent on destabilizing democracy for its own benefit.

In a secret crisis summit of the UN Security Council in Moscow, the leaders of the free world unanimously agreed that the best way to engage this common foe was to form a global police force whose structure could parallel or mirror that of the criminal network itself.

SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ is composed of the cream of police officers from the best tactical units in the world, including some who served in OPERATION URBAN JUSTICE in previous years, as well as ex-special forces personnel from various militaries. It is based on the concept that different nationalities with knowledge of local criminal environments can readily pool their intelligence and expertise to anticipate and prevent the enemy from achieving their goals. Those selected for SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ do tours of duty around the world before returning to their previous vocations. Most choose to stay...

SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ is the muscle, the business end of a worldwide policy to streamline the law enforcement agencies of civilized nations in a sustained effort to coordinate a response to the real threat posed by the criminal network. SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ was therefore designed to work alongside more traditional law enforcement agencies and military/defense organizations throughout the world.

You are Mathias Kincaid, a former member of the US Army's elite Delta Force and now a commander within SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™. Having volunteered for GST duty, your wish has finally been granted. As element leader, you will be teamed up with two first lieutenants, a sharpshooting sniper named Kana Lee, and Anthony "TJ" Jackson, an excellent field technician.

A major threat to world security has arisen: two rival gangs, the "Omega Cartel" (Executive High Rollers) and the "Whispering Dragon Clan" (Urban Street Warriors)—in reality global organizations—are fighting a bitter turf war over the production and distribution of a deadly new designer drug, LD-50—nicknamed SPIKE. The Omega Cartel owns the production and distribution arm, but the new boys on the street, the Dragons, want to tax the Omega Cartel or gain access to their territory. This war has spilled out onto the streets of the world's major cities, terrorizing ordinary decent citizens. Airports have been closed down due to bomb threats, waves of car bomb attacks have swept the US, Europe, and the former Soviet Union, and street gunfights have spread beyond LA into the heartland of the US. In several major European cities, huge areas are considered virtual war zones and have effectively been abandoned by conventional police forces.

To meet this threat, a global police response is needed. And so SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ is called in with orders to destroy both narco-terrorist organizations.

GAME SELECT SCREEN

From the Game Select screen, the player has the following selections to choose from:

Campaign

The Campaign mode in SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ allows the player to play the missions in order from start to finish through an unfolding storyline. Completing a mission in Campaign mode will unlock the next mission in Campaign mode.

For more details, see page 10.

Time ATTACK

Selecting Time Attack begins a new Time Attack game or resumes one already in progress. A Time Attack game differs from a Campaign game in that the player has a limited amount of time to complete the mission. The exact amount of time is extended or shortened based on how well the player performs his objectives, arrests criminals, frees hostages, and so on. Should the mission clock reach 0:00:00 before the mission is complete, the game is over. In Time Attack mode, the game difficulty is automatically set to "Veteran."

Cooperative

This mode allows two players to play cooperatively in order to successfully complete the missions. The game uses a split screen, so players have their own point of view during game play.

For more details, see page 10.

Cooperative Time Attack

This mode combines the features of Cooperative and Time Attack modes. Two players play against the mission clock, with the success of the mission dependent upon both players' game play. Should the mission clock reach 0:00:00 before the mission is complete, the game is over.

Deathmatch

Pitting players against one another or team against team, this mode allows you to play against up to three other players over six different play modes.

For more details, see page 11.

Options

SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ has options to enhance the game experience and configure it to your liking, allowing you to adjust audio, video, voice-recognition features, and controller configurations.

For more details, see page 12.

Extras

The Extras section offers bonus material and game credits.

For more details, see page 13.

PROFILE SELECT SCREEN

The Profile Select screen allows a player to choose an existing profile or create a new profile.

To select an existing profile, scroll to the one desired and press the  button to confirm and select it.

To create a new profile, select an empty slot marked CREATE A NEW PROFILE and press the  button to confirm and select it. Enter a name using the character entry method provided. When completed, you will be asked where to save the profile. Follow the on-screen instructions.

SELECT MISSION SCREEN

The Select Mission screen allows you to choose a mission to play. Only unlocked missions will be playable. To select a mission to play, scroll to the desired one. If it is locked, it will tell you. If it is not, press the  button to choose it. Once a mission is chosen, you will need to select the difficulty level of game play (Rookie, Veteran, or Elite) prior to viewing the Mission Briefing screen. You may only select a difficulty level that is equal to or less than the level of difficulty from the previous mission.

You may also view the details of your current profile by pressing the  button.

MISSION BRIEFING SCREEN

After selecting the mission and difficulty level, the mission briefing is delivered. This will provide you with your upcoming assignment, showing what intelligence has been gathered and what your team's objectives are. You may use the left analog stick or directional button to scroll through the text.

EQUIPMENT SELECT SCREEN

After the mission briefing, you will be able to equip your character based on the threat assessment. Your character will carry standard-issue equipment and the less-than-lethal tranquilizer handgun. You will be able to change out the lethal weapon and the type of grenade your character carries. Note, the number of grenades carried into a mission is based upon the level of difficulty selected for the mission.

This section will also allow you to spend any Weapons Upgrade Points earned, by pressing the  button on this screen to move to the Customize screen. Weapons Upgrade Points are awarded after every completed mission based upon how well you managed to secure the prime suspects. Weapons Upgrade Points can be spent to modify aspects of a lethal weapon, with the exception of the sniper rifle.

After making your selections, you may proceed to the mission.

MISSION COMPLETE SCREEN

After a completed mission, a recap is displayed. This recap includes such information as the time it took to complete the mission, your shooting accuracy, the number of civilians rescued, the number of civilians killed, the number of enemies restrained, the number of enemies escaped, the number of enemies killed, and the number of times unauthorized force was used. Included with this recap is a grade rating based on adhering to "Rules of Engagement", with a grade of "A" being the best.

Action Movies

Each GST team member has their own action movie that you can watch after advancing far enough in your campaign missions. You can watch the action movie for each team member after completing the seventh, fourteenth, and twenty-first missions with an "A" grade.

IN-GAME SCREEN

HUD

The Heads-Up Display provides important in-game information to you, the player.

A – Player's Health

This indicator tells you your character's state of health. When the indicator is full, your character is healthy and uninjured. When the indicator is empty, your character is dead, the mission is unsuccessful, and the game is over.

B – Team Member's Indicator

The Team Member's Indicator serves three functions: it lets you know who is on the mission, the health of the team members, and who is speaking. The team members' health functions exactly like the player character's health. Should a team member's indicator become empty, the mission is unsuccessful and the game is over.

Should a team member activate his communication link and speak, his indicator will expand to show his entire face.

Depending on the mission, you may see both, just one, or neither of a team member's indicators.

C – Weapons Inventory

The weapons inventory keeps track of how many grenades you have and how much ammo remains in your clip.

You start off a mission with a set number of grenades based on the level of difficulty of the mission. Use them wisely as they are all you have to use during a mission. To throw a grenade, press the L1 button.

For all missions, you carry an unlimited supply of clips for your weapons. Each weapon has its own size clip with a certain number of rounds. Should your weapon clip reach 0, your character will reload the weapon automatically. Be careful not to engage enemies with a low clip. Doing so may cost you dearly if you have to pause to reload.

D – Reticule

The reticule will differ according to the weapon you currently have selected. When targeting a hostile, it will change to indicate a lock-on. If a non-hostile is targeted, it will alert you not to shoot.

E – Compliance Meter

As you shout for compliance, enemies become intimidated. This is indicated by the compliance meter. When the meter reaches maximum, pressing compliance causes the enemy to give up. Some compliance tactics include the following:

- Repeatedly shout for compliance to wear enemies down and make them give up.
- Fire warning shots to scare enemies and make them more likely to comply.
- Sneak up behind enemies for immediate compliance.
- Shout at stunned enemies for immediate compliance (flash-bang / gas).
- Shoot enemies to wear them down and make them more likely to comply.
- Shout at enemies while complied to make sure they do not come back and attack before they are handcuffed.

Movement and Look

To move around, use the left analog stick. This allows you to move forward, backward, and side-to-side. Pressing the L3 button will make your character crouch or stand up.

To look around and aim, use the right analog stick. Pressing the R3 button will allow you to enter "Zoom Mode." This mode lets you to lean around corners by moving the movement control analog left or right. Press the R3 button again or push forward or back on the left analog stick to exit Zoom Mode.

Action Interfaces

F – Squad Command Interface

The squad command interface allows you to issue orders to your team members during a mission. To access the squad command interface, press the directional button. This will display a list of choices you can then select by using the directional button.

If you have two team members with you on the mission, pressing the directional button brings up the squad command interface, which allows you to choose either team member or both. After making a selection, the list of commands comes up and you can then issue the command via the directional button.

- directional button to issue squad commands to team members

G – Action Icon

Your character can interact with the environment in various ways. When there is an action that your character can take, an icon will appear in the lower center part of the game screen. Pressing the  button will make your character perform the action associated with the icon. Some examples include cuffing a hostile or non-hostile and opening doors.

In the case of unlocked doors, tapping the  button will cause your character to open the door slightly and peek into the room or toss in a grenade. Holding the  button longer will cause your character to open the door in normal fashion.

H – Action Timer

The action timer is a graphical representation of the length of time it takes for your team member or your character to perform an action such as disarming explosives.

I – Equipment Interface

The equipment interface allows you to equip your character with a piece of gear. Gear at your disposal includes the following:

- Gas Mask – For use if you encounter CS grenades, gas leaks, etc.
- Night Vision – Allows better vision in low-light conditions.
- Binoculars – Allow you to zoom in for a better look.
- Light Sticks – Used to mark areas that have been cleared.

To activate the equipment interface, press and hold the R2 button. Use the directional button to make your selection. To unequip an item, simply tap the R2 button. Tapping the R2 button with nothing equipped will equip your character with the last item equipped.

SWAT: GLOBAL STRIKE TEAM™ supports Voice Recognition Technology. Voice Recognition Technology can be used to issue team member orders and compliance commands instead of using the game pad.

Please note that Voice Recognition Technology is supported through an approved PlayStation®2 USB headset. Most commands are context sensitive based upon what you are looking at and where your target reticule is. Those situations within the world that are interactive will either highlight so that the player can aim their reticule over it to issue a command, or a squad command interface will come up.

Each action has multiple verbal commands that can trigger it. Experiment to see which ones work best for you.

There are three types of voice commands.

Team Commands

Team Commands are used to initiate an order and to designate the teammate to perform the order. They are used in conjunction with Order Commands.

VERBAL COMMAND	ACTION
Team	Used to select both teammates and follow it with an additional command.
Jackson	Used to select only Jackson and follow it with an additional command.
Lee	Used to select only Lee and follow it with an additional command.

Order Commands

Order Commands tell a teammate or team what action to perform.

VERBAL COMMAND	ACTION
Enter	Directs a teammate to enter and clear a room.
Secure	Instructs a teammate to cover you facing in the direction you are facing when issued.
Lock On	Orders a teammate to target a suspect that you have targeted.

LICENSE AGREEMENT

This software program, any printed materials, any online or electronic documentation (the "Program") are the copyrighted work of Vivendi Universal Games, Inc., or its licensors. All use of the Program is governed by the terms of the End User License Agreement which is provided below ("License"). The Program is solely for use by end users according to the terms of the License Agreement. Any use, reproduction or redistribution of the Program not in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement is expressly prohibited.

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

1. Limited Use License. Vivendi Universal Games, Inc. ("VUG") hereby grants, and by utilizing the Program you thereby accept, a limited, nonexclusive license and right to use one (1) copy of the Program for your use on a Sony PlayStation® computer entertainment system.
2. Ownership. All title, ownership rights and intellectual property rights in and to the Program and any and all copies thereof (including but not limited to any titles, computer code, themes, objects, characters, character names, stories, text, dialog, catch phrases, locations, concepts, artwork, animations, sounds, musical compositions, audiovisual effects, methods of operation, moral rights, any related documentation, and "applets" incorporated into the Program) are owned by VUG or its licensors. The Program is protected by the copyright laws of the United States, international copyright treaties and conventions and other laws. All rights are reserved. The Program may contain certain licensed materials, and VUG's licensors may act to protect their rights in the event of any violation of this Agreement.
3. Responsibilities of End User. A. Subject to the Limited Use License as set forth above, you may not, in whole or in part, copy, photocopy, reproduce, translate, reverse engineer, derive source code from, modify, disassemble, decompile, or create derivative works based on the Program, or remove any proprietary notices or labels on the Program without the prior consent, in writing, of VUG.
B. You are entitled to use the Program for your own use, but you are not entitled to: sell, grant a security interest in or transfer reproductions of the Program to other parties in any way, nor to rent, lease or license the Program to others without the prior written consent of VUG; or exploit the Program or any of its parts for any commercial purpose.
4. Program Transfer. You may permanently transfer all of your rights under this License, provided the recipient agrees to the terms of this License.
5. Termination. This License is effective until terminated. You may terminate the License at any time by destroying the Program. VUG may, at its discretion, terminate this License in the event that you fail to comply with the terms and conditions contained herein. In such event, you must immediately destroy the Program.
6. Limited Warranty. VUG EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM AND MANUAL(S). THE PROGRAM AND MANUAL(S) ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR NONINFRINGEMENT. ANY WARRANTY AGAINST INFRINGEMENT THAT MAY BE PROVIDED IN SECTION 2-312(3) OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE AND/OR IN ANY OTHER COMPARABLE STATE STATUTE IS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED. The entire risk arising out of use or performance of the Program remains with You, however VUG warrants the disc(s), on which the Program is furnished, to be free from defects in materials and workmanship, under normal use, for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery. VUG's sole liability in the event of a defective disc shall be to give You a replacement disc. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, or allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, so the above limitations may not apply.
7. Limitation of Liability. NEITHER VUG, ITS PARENT, SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES NOR LICENSORS SHALL BE LIABLE IN ANY WAY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE OF ANY KIND RESULTING FROM THE USE OF THE PROGRAM INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF GOODWILL, WORK STOPPAGE, COMPUTER FAILURE OR MALFUNCTION, OR ANY AND ALL OTHER COMMERCIAL DAMAGES OR LOSSES. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, or allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, so the above limitations may not apply to you.
8. Equitable Remedies. You hereby agree that VUG would be irreparably damaged if the terms of this License were not specifically enforced, and therefore you agree that VUG shall be entitled, without bond, other security, or proof of damages, to appropriate equitable remedies with respect to breaches of this License, in addition to such other remedies as VUG may otherwise have available to it under applicable laws. In the event any litigation is brought by either party in connection with this License Agreement, the prevailing party in such litigation shall be entitled to recover from the other party all the costs, attorneys' fees and other expenses incurred by such prevailing party in the litigation.
9. Miscellaneous. This License shall be deemed to have been made and executed in the State of California, and any dispute arising hereunder shall be resolved in accordance with the law of the State of California. This License may be amended only by an instrument in writing executed by both parties. This License constitutes and contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements.
