INTRODUCTION

The year is 2007, and the world stands on the brink of a terrifying global conflict. As the United States is caught in an embargo-induced oil crisis, terrorist attacks against American interests – and citizens – escalate. Venezuela, which still supplies the United States with oil, also becomes a target. As unrest grows in America, protests rock the streets of Caracas. And while the shadow of terror looms, madmen plot even greater acts of murder and destruction. No place is safe, no border secure in this hour of fear. Only one bulwark stands between the world and the threats that now face it: Rainbow, an international task force dedicated to combating terrorism in all its forms. A top-secret organization consisting of the best field operatives the United Nations has to offer, Rainbow is the most potent weapon in the world's arsenal. Backed by the most sophisticated technology available and trained to the limits of human capability, they are our best hope in the war against terror. They may also be our last.

Tom Clancy's
RAINBOW SIX 3

Overview

In Rainbow Six 3, you are Ding Chavez, the leader of an elite, international anti-terrorist unit code-named Rainbow. Your mission: to neutralize terrorists and save the world.

DOMINGO "DING" CHAVEZ

Team 1: Lead Field Operative

ID: RCT0047-X0566

Date of Birth: 12JAN68

Nationality: American

Rainbow Six 3 contains 15 missions linked to form a single campaign. During missions, the action gets intense, and with "one-shot, one-kill lethality," the real world is extremely unforgiving. As your skills sharpen, the missions get gradually harder and the pressure builds. Remember, when Rainbow gets called in, it's because it's an extremely important mission and all other options have been exhausted... Hit 'em hard and hit 'em fast!

Team Rainbow

While there are over a half-dozen four-man teams in Rainbow, you only need to be concerned with your boss and the members of Team 1, your team.

JOHN CLARK

John Clark, your boss, worked as a field operative for over 20 years. When he retired from the field, he took command of Rainbow. He's your link to the outside world and coordinates your missions and activities from headquarters in Hereford, England.

IN-GAME INTERFACE

HUD

The HUD for the single-player game contains information on your health, weapons, and team.

YOUR INFORMATION

Your name, Ding Chavez, appears in the lower left of the screen. To the left of your name is your current stance (standing or crouching). Just below your name are your heart rate and health level. You have four bars of health at the beginning of each mission. If you lose all four, you are dead and automatically fail the mission. When your health gets low, it's a good idea to use your team more aggressively and take fewer chances yourself.

WEAPON INFORMATION

Information regarding the current weapon/object appears below your heart rate. These include weapon/object name, the number of bullets in the weapon/magazine, a graphic depicting the ammo remaining in the weapon, and the number of extra bullets/magazines available when reloading.

Tom Clancy's RAINBOW SIX 3

In the center of the screen is the targeting reticle, which consists of a circle and center dot. As you move, the circle shrinks to reflect your loss of accuracy. When you stop moving, the circle expands to its largest size. The moral of the story is that it's easier to hit a target if you're not moving.

TEAM INFORMATION

Depending on the mission, John Clark can assign up to three other operatives to support you. The team health level is in the bottom center of the screen and works exactly like your own. Below each health indicator is an operative name, which blinks when that operative is talking. Above the health indicators is the Team Current Action, which describes what team members are currently doing.

RADAR

In the lower right of your screen is the radar. The radar shows you the situation immediately around you and helps you navigate the mission areas. If your current objective is within the map display area, it appears as a small Objective icon []. If it is not in view, an arrow [] appears along the edge of the map to help you find it.

If you are under attack, the radar will show you the alert direction. []

Teammate icons [] help you keep track of your teammates during missions. Whenever a terrorist takes out one of your teammates, he is replaced with a Man Down icon [] letting you know where he fell.

ACTION ICON

The Action icon appears above the Team Current Action and shows the action you and/or your team can perform at the location designated by the center dot of your reticle. Action icons with brackets around them designate that the team will perform the action [], while those without are actions performed by you, the player [] (see Interacting with the Environment).

HOW TO PLAY

Who Am I?

You play the part of Ding Chavez, an elite Rainbow counter-terrorism operative trained to the limits of human capabilities. You lead a team of four operatives, and your mission is to neutralize terrorists and save the world. To keep your identities hidden, your only official link to the outside world is through John Clark, your boss. He receives requests from governments around the world for your very special services and subsequently dispatches you on missions. Rainbow only gets called after all other options have been exhausted on situations of international importance. That means when you go in, hit hard and fast!

Who Else Is in the World?

Besides you and your team, there are two other types of people in the world: terrorists and hostages. Terrorists, or "tangos," are the bad guys. The rules for dealing with terrorists are simple and straightforward. Shoot anyone with a gun and secure anyone without one. Dealing with hostages requires more caution. If a hostage dies, you automatically fail the mission, so when entering an area with a hostage, you must quickly distinguish friend from foe. Some tangos will have orders to execute hostages at the first sign of trouble, so you'll have to deal with those terrorists quickly.

Tom Clancy's

Looking and Moving Around

To look around, simply move the right analog stick. To move around the world, use the left analog stick. Moving fast greatly increases the amount of noise you make and also makes shooting much more difficult.

Peeking and Changing Stance

Peeking is extremely useful for looking around objects without completely exposing yourself to enemy fire. Peek using the left and right directional buttons. When you're trying to avoid being shot or detected, it also helps to minimize your stance. You can toggle between standing and crouching by pressing the L3 button.

Night and Thermal Vision

Use the  button to switch between normal vision and night and thermal vision. Night vision allows you to see clearly in the dark. It depicts the world as shades of black and green. Thermal vision is useful for highlighting heat signatures, such as people, and hot objects like fires. Thermal vision also lets you see through some doors and objects, which makes it extremely useful during recon missions.

Interacting with the Environment

HOW DO I?

In Rainbow Six 3, interacting with your environment allows you to do everything from opening doors to securing surrendered terrorists. To interact with your environment, move near to and look at an area/object you can interact with. When a Player Action icon appears in the bottom center of the screen, press the ⊗ button to perform the action the icon represents. If the action involves a door, you also have two other controls you can use: Fluid Open and Close. To fluidly open a door, press the up directional button. To fluidly close a door, press the down directional button.

HOW DO I ORDER MY TEAM?

DEFAULT ORDERS

To order your team to interact with the environment, simply look at the object/area where you want them to do something. When a Team Action icon  appears in the bottom center of the screen, press the ⊗ button to order your team to perform the default action (see Action Situations and Default Actions on page 20).

QUICK ORDER INTERFACE

You can also press and hold the ⊗ button to display the Quick Order Interface (QOI), which contains a complete list of available actions. To issue an order in the QOI, press the corresponding direction with the left analog stick or with the directional buttons.

ZULU AND CLEAR TOGGLES

Some locations have more than four orders associated with them and use the Zulu Order (L1 button) and Clear Order (R1 button) toggles. The Zulu Order toggle tells the team to wait to execute the order until you give them the Zulu Go-Code (R2 button). This allows you to be somewhere else when the team performs the order.

The Clear Order toggle tells the team to rush into the room and engage all tangos after performing the order. This toggle is on by default when interacting with doors.

USING VOICE ORDERS

With a USB headset connected to your PlayStation®2 console, you can order your team using the voice commands on page 20. Simply press the L2 button and say the right order (orders appear in the QOI). "Go, go, go" executes the default order for any situation.

HOLD, REGROUP, AND ZULU

Whenever your team is not following you, you can order them to regroup. At any time, you can tell your team to hold and they will seek cover near their current location. You can issue either of these orders by voice or by pressing the Team Hold/Regroup button (the ⊙ button).

If your team is waiting for you to issue the Zulu Go-Code, you can issue the order by saying, "Zulu" or "Zulu Go" using your USB headset, or by pressing the R2 button.

Switching Between Weapons and Equipment

To bring up the Inventory menu, press and hold the L1 button. To select a piece of gear, simply choose the corresponding direction with your left analog stick or with the directional buttons. You can also quick switch between your primary and secondary weapon by just pressing (without holding) the L1 button.

Shooting

RETICLE

As stated earlier, the reticle consists of a circle and a center dot. All you have to do to hit a terrorist is to put the center of his chest or his head inside the circle or put the center dot on any part of his body. To hit any other object, you need to put the center dot on it.

FIRING

To fire your currently selected weapon, simply press the R1 button. If the weapon is an automatic, it will continue to fire until you release the trigger. If it isn't, it will only fire a single shot each time you press the R1 button. When you fire, the screen jumps, and the smoke and flash from the weapon blind you. So whenever possible, fire short bursts of three to five rounds.

RELOADING

To reload your weapon, press the  button. This removes the current magazine from the weapon and replaces it with another. Try to reload whenever you get a chance, because there's nothing worse than being in the middle of a firefight and running out of ammunition.

ZOOMING

You can use the zoom of your weapon by pressing the R3 button. This gives you a better view of your target but slows down your looking/turning speed. Sniper rifles, unlike other weapons, have two zoom levels.

Other Items

Besides firearms, there are a number of different items you can take into missions.

GAS MASK

A gas mask negates the effects of tear gas grenades and is always worn when carried.

DEPLOYING EXPLOSIVE CHARGES AND MINES

BREACHING CHARGE

REMOTE CHARGE

CLAYMORE MINE

There are three types of explosives in Rainbow Six 3: breaching charges, remote charges, and claymore mines. Breaching charges destroy doors and temporarily stun those on the other side. But beware – anyone standing close to the door will receive damage. To place a breaching charge, look at a door and when the Place Charge reticle appears, press the R1 button. After you place the charge, a detonator appears in your hand, allowing you to detonate it at any time or "on command."

Remote charges and claymore mines can be deployed on the ground near your feet by pressing the R1 button. Remote charges are basically frag grenades that you detonate "on command," while claymore mines are similar but only inflict damage to their front.

THROWING GRENADES

There are five grenades to choose from in Rainbow Six 3:

Frag: Explodes, inflicting damage.

Flash Bang: Temporarily disables anyone near the blast.

Gas: Creates a cloud of toxic gas that temporarily incapacitates anyone not wearing a gas mask.

Smoke: Creates a large cloud of white smoke.

White Phosphorus (WP): Creates a small, white cloud and explodes, burning everything nearby.

To throw a grenade, simply look in the desired direction and press the R1 button. You'll have to get used to judging the range, so practice throwing a few before you get into combat. You can also press and hold the R1 button to pull the pin on the grenade but not throw it. As soon as you release the R1 button, you throw the grenade.

M203 GRENADE LAUNCHER

The M203 grenade launcher is an incredibly powerful weapon and must be used with caution. Its grenades are similar to the handheld ones above, but are not quite as effective. There are four different rounds available for this weapon:

- HE: Explodes on contact, inflicting damage.
- Gas: Explodes on contact, creating a cloud of toxic smoke.
- Smoke: Creates a large cloud of white smoke.
- Red Phosphorus (RP): Creates a small cloud of red smoke and explodes, burning everything nearby.

In-Game Saves

Rainbow Six 3 will ask you regularly to save your progress. During the game, you will reach checkpoints that allow you to not restart the entire mission if you fail. The number of checkpoints will change according to the level of difficulty you are playing.

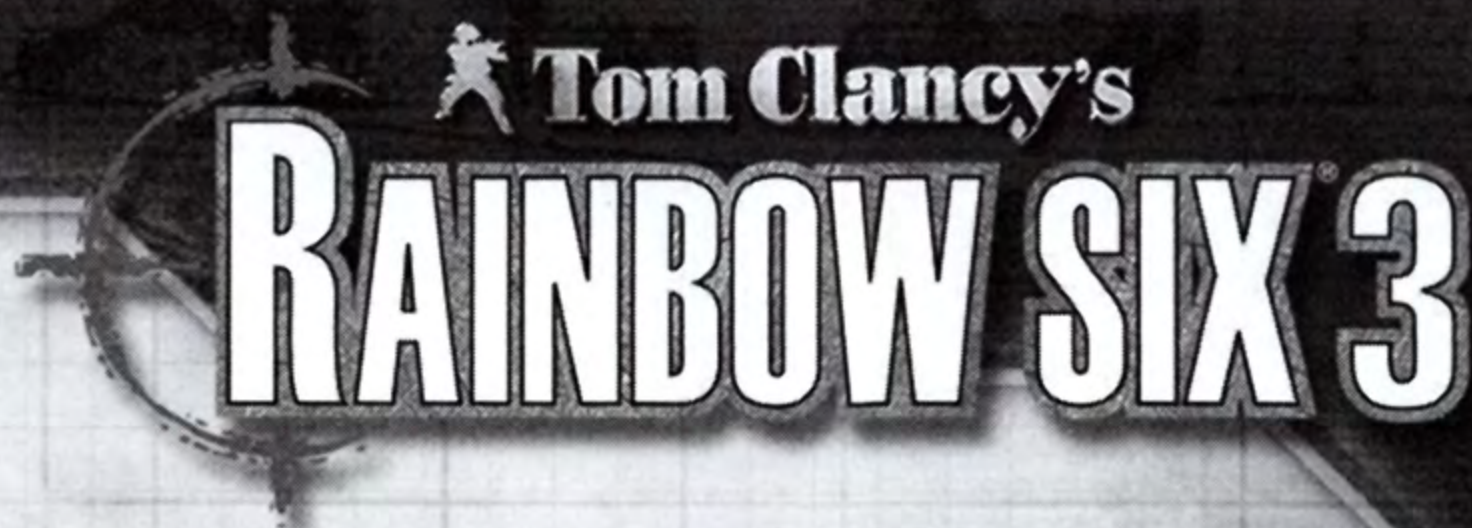

FINISHING A MISSION: DEBRIEFING

After you finish a mission, whether you fail or succeed, you proceed to the Debriefing screen. This screen has the statistics of each operative, including health, kills, hit percentage, rounds fired, and rounds on target.

Retry From

You can reattempt the mission by selecting one of the options on the left side of the screen:

- INSERTION: Reloads the mission from the beginning of the part of the mission you are in.

Tom Clancy's RAINBOW SIX 3

- BRIEFING: Goes back to the Mission Planning Computer, where you can reselect your gear and weapons.

If you wish to abort your mission, click on Main Menu to return to the Main Menu.

PLAYSTATION®2 ONLINE PLAY

Online play allows several players to play either as a team or against each other. You can play in three different game modes:

- Survival: Play against friends. The last player standing wins.
- Sharp Shooter: Play against friends. The player with most kills wins. When you die, you respawn and immediately re-enter the action.
- Team Survival: Play with friends as one team against another. The last team standing wins.

Return Policy

Please do not send any game returns directly to Ubisoft before contacting Technical Support. It is our policy that game returns must be dealt with by the retailer or online site where you purchased the product. If you have a damaged or faulty game, please visit our FAQ listing for your game and get the latest replacement policy and pricing. We will not accept unsolicited returns/exchanges without prior approval and an RMA (Return Materials Authorization) number from a Support Representative.

WARRANTY

Ubisoft warrants to the original purchaser of its products that the products will be free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of purchase. Ubisoft products are sold "as is," without any expressed or implied warranties of any kind, and Ubisoft is not liable for any losses or damages of any kind resulting from use of its products. Ubisoft agrees for a period of ninety (90) days to either replace defective product free of charge provided you return the defective item with dated proof of purchase to the store from which the product was originally purchased or repair or replace the defective product at its option free of charge, when accompanied with a proof of purchase and sent to our offices postage prepaid. This warranty is not applicable to normal wear and tear, and shall be void if the defect in the product is found to be as a result of abuse, unreasonable use, mistreatment, or neglect of the product.

LIMITATIONS

This warranty is in lieu of all other warranties and no other representations or claims of any nature shall be binding on, or obligate Ubisoft. Any implied warranties applicable to Ubisoft products, including warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, are limited to the ninety (90) day period described above. In no event will Ubisoft be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages resulting from possession, use, or malfunction of Ubisoft products. Some states do not allow limitations as to how long an implied warranty lasts and/or exclusions or limitations of incidental or consequential damages. So the above limitations and/or exclusions of liability may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific rights, and you may also have other rights that vary from state to state.

NOTICE

Ubisoft reserves the right to make improvements in its products at any time and without notice.

REFUNDS

Ubisoft cannot provide refunds or otherwise process returns for credit of any kind other than an identical product replacement. Any product refund request must occur at the place of purchase, as the individual retail outlets set their own refund policy. This policy covers identical product replacements only.

PRODUCT/DOCUMENTATION REPLACEMENTS

Please contact a Ubisoft Technical Support Representative directly before sending your product to us. In many cases, a replacement is not the best solution. Our Support Representatives will help you determine if a replacement is necessary or available. You will need to first acquire an RMA (Return Materials Authorization) number to process your return or replacement. Without an RMA number from a support representative, your replacement request will not be processed.

IF WE DETERMINE A RETURN OR REPLACEMENT IS NECESSARY:

Within the 90-Day Warranty Period: Please return the product (media only) along with a copy of the original sales receipt, showing the date of purchase, a brief description of the difficulty you are experiencing including your name, address (no PO boxes) and phone number to the address below. If the product was damaged through misuse or accident (cracks, scratches), or if you do not have a dated sales receipt, then this 90-day warranty is rendered void and you will need to follow the instructions for returns after the 90-day warranty period.

After the 90-Day Warranty Period: Please return the product (media only) along with a check or money order for the amount corresponding to your product (see replacement fees below) made payable to Ubisoft, a brief description of the difficulty you are experiencing, including your name, address (no PO boxes), RMA number, and phone number to the address below.
